

Cabinet Agencies' Performance Audit Action Item(s) & Status

Opportunities to Reduce State Mail Volume and Costs

(See also Cabinet Agencies' Response for full context to Washington State Auditor's Office (SAO) report, October 2011)

Agencies included in the performance audit: Enterprise Services, Licensing, Social & Health Services, Employment Security and Labor & Industries.

SAO Issues Summary:

1. State agencies have opportunities to reduce outgoing mail volumes.
2. Even for phones that are used regularly, state agencies can save by better matching phone plans with actual use.
3. Washington could improve its overall management of state agencies' phone costs.
4. The departments of Employment Security, Labor & Industries, Licensing, and Social and Health Services report the results of their outgoing mail reduction efforts including implementation costs, projected or actual savings, and expected return on investment to the Department of Enterprise Services.

The table below shows the current status of action items the agency initiated to address issues identified in the performance audit report. Please see the coordinated cabinet agencies' response for additional context and any additional steps already taken.

		of UI benefits. Developing the capacity to use debit cards requires additional information technology resources. These resources are currently devoted to major improvements in our information systems.
2	Completed	ESD will continue efforts to encourage employers to obtain information electronically.	ESD	N/A	Yes	No	No	ESD sends quarterly business updates and other information electronically to 164,612 employers who have signed up. This has reduced our outgoing mail volume and will save the agency an estimated $134,000.
2	Completed	We are eliminating our “What’s Next?” flyer currently mailed to all new claimants.	ESD	2/12	Yes	No	No	6/20/13 Update: In February 2013, the Employment Security Department discontinued mailing the “What’s Next?” flyer to Unemployment Insurance claimants. ESD estimates it saved approximately $56,377 as of June 30, 2013, by not printing and mailing this flyer. Information contained in the document is available on the department’s public website and in other mailings. ESD calculates annual savings will be about $169,000. In addition, as of October 2012 ESD stopped mailing 42 continued claim messages to UI claimants.
