

BIOGRAPHY OF POLLY ZEHM

Polly Zehm has been Department of Ecology's Deputy Director for 7 ½ years. She has worked at Ecology for nearly 22 years, in a variety of programs and positions. Before coming to headquarters in late 2003, she worked at Ecology's Central Regional Office in Yakima. Prior to working at Ecology, Polly worked for the cities of Olympia and Ellensburg.

BIOGRAPHY OF MAIA D. BELLON

MAIA D. BELLON joined the Department of Ecology in June of 2010, where she serves as the Deputy Program Manager for the Water Resources Program. Prior to joining Ecology, Maia practiced environmental law as an Assistant Attorney General with the Ecology Division of the Washington State Attorney General's Office for 15 years, where she provided client advice and litigation support for Ecology's Water Resources, Shorelands, Toxics Cleanup, and Air Programs.