

thank you!

Hello,

Thank you for attending 6 Types of Working Genius today - I'm glad you did!

In the session we explored Patrick Lencioni's groundbreaking new model that will change the way we think about work. We learned the remarkably simple and practical framework for tapping into one another's natural gifts at work, which increases productivity and reduces unnecessary judgment and conflict.

Here's to discovering our Working Genius, and experiencing the transformation in our work, our team, and our lives! If you have any questions, reach out. I would love to hear from you!

Take care and keep dancing,

- amy
